Most Americans pay attention to their health.

In school, children learn to eat healthy food. They are told not to eat too much junk food. They know what is good or bad to eat. Many Americans read the information carefully about what they eat. The U.S. government also requires(要求) strict food, so the food has higher quality and people can eat better food.

Keeping fit is often on the top list of Americans' New Year's resolutions. Most Americans like joining health clubs to take enough exercise. Many stores sell sports shoes and clothing. People can even buy equipment(设备) and set up their own exercise center at home.

Now Americans exercise less than they did before. The number of people taking part in health activities is becoming smaller. Of high school students, only 37% of them exercise three times a week. However, 70% of the young men watch TV at least an hour every day, and 38% of them watch over three hours. At least one-third of Americans weigh 20% more than their ideal weight.

Though these problems are worrying, we still say Americans enjoy good health, because medical care in the United States is the best in the world.

Do you like meeting new people? Do you like talking? Are you shy? Whatever your answers are, the following tips can help you.

Have some topics ready to start a conversation. Say something about the weather or the place where you are. Talk about the weekend — we all have something to say about weekends.

Make the conversation interesting. Read the latest news. Find out information about popular music or what's new in fashion or sports.

Listen actively. Don't just say "Yes" or "No" when you answer a question. You'd better show your own opinion, too.

Don't talk about yourself all the time. Ask "How about you?" and show that you are interested in the other person. People love to talk about themselves!

Ask information questions. Ask questions like "What do you do in your free time?" or "What kind of food do you like?" Use questions to keep the conversation going. But don't ask too many questions. It's not an interrogation(审问)!

Be positive. Negative answers can sound rude. And if you don't want to answer a personal question, simply say, "Oh, I'm not sure I can answer that."

Hello! I'm very glad to introduce myself to you. My name is Jim. I'm a boy of 15. My father is an engineer. My mother is an English teacher. I graduated from Lincoln High School. Computer and English are my favorites, and I'm good at them. In my spare time, I like sports very much. I like collecting stamps and music, too. I think collecting stamps is very interesting. I can learn a lot from it.

That's all. Thank you!
